How it Works

Pay as you go for the orders Amazon fulfills and storage space.

- Inventory storage fees: Charged for all items stored in an Amazon fulfillment center, and based on your daily average volume of inventory measured in cubic feet. See how to determine the product size tier.

- Removal order fees: Amazon will return or dispose of your inventory in a fulfillment center for a per-item fee.
- Long-term storage fees: Assessed monthly for all items stored in a fulfillment center for more than 365 days. Maintaining sound inventory health can help you avoid long-term storage fees.

Over 500,000 brands worldwide are enrolled in Brand Registry. Launching in 2017 and expanded globally into the United States, Australia, Brazil, Canada, France, Germany, India, Italy, Japan, Mexico, Spain, United Kingdom, United Arab Emirates, Turkey, Singapore, Netherlands, and Saudi Arabia. We continuously innovate and expand to new countries and regions to better serve our brands.

Amazon strives to be Earth's most customer-centric company, where people can find and discover the widest possible selection of authentic goods. Today, we have more than 300 million active customer accounts and over 1.9 million selling partners worldwide. Many of these selling partners are small and medium-sized businesses, and they represent the majority of physical products sold in our stores. We are proud to help these small businesses thrive and create hundreds of thousands of new jobs in their local communities. We work hard to earn and maintain customer trust, and strictly prohibit the sale of counterfeit products. We constantly innovate to detect and prevent counterfeit products from reaching our customers.

IP Accelerator

For Brands who want to establish their intellectual property.

Available in Amazon stores globally for Brand Owners registered in Brand Registry with a government-registered trademark.

Amazon IP Accelerator helps businesses more quickly obtain intellectual property (IP) rights and brand protection in Amazon's stores by connecting over 7,000 small and medium-sized businesses with a curated network of trusted IP law firms which provide high-quality trademark registration services at competitive rates. These firms in the US and Europe have successfully submitted trademark applications, helping brands like you receive early access to Brand Registry's brand protection tools.

A key part of helping small or medium-sized businesses grow and succeed is ensuring they are able to protect their intellectual property. Securing intellectual property rights can be confusing and costly, but it is a necessary step for brands to protect their name, logo, product designs, and other aspects of their brand. For instance, in the European Union only 9% of small and medium-sized businesses register their intellectual property, whereas larger businesses are 4 times more likely to do so.

Project Zero

For Brands who want to protect their products against counterfeits.

Available in Amazon stores globally to Brand Owners registered in Brand Registry with an eligible government-registered trademark.

Other Requirements

- Have submitted reports of potential infringements with an acceptance rate of at least 90% in the last six months.

Over 18,000 brands have enrolled in Project Zero. Project Zero combines Amazon's advanced technology with the sophisticated knowledge brands have of their own intellectual property and how best to detect counterfeits of their brands. This happens through three powerful tools:

1. Automated protections

Amazon's automated protections proactively block suspected bad product listings before they are published. These automated protections are powered by Amazon's machine learning and are continuously fed new information, to continue to improve, automatically preventing and blocking potential counterfeit listings.

2. Self-service counterfeit removal

Brands no longer need to contact us to remove counterfeit listings from our stores. Instead, you have the unprecedented ability to do so yourselves using our new self-service tool. We also use this data to strengthen our automated protections to better catch potential counterfeit listings proactively.

3. Product serialization - Transparency

Project Zero also features product serialization, which is enabled by a unique code that brands apply on their product or its packaging. While product serialization is optional, enrolled brands see the best results when using our product serialization technology.

Transparency

For Brands who want to proactively protect themselves and customers against counterfeits, enhance customer experience, and identify supply chain defects.

Available in the following Amazon stores: United States, Canada, Germany, France, Italy, Spain, India, Australia, and Japan to Brand Owners registered in Brand Registry with an eligible government-registered trademark.

Other Requirements

- A Global Trade Item Number (GTIN), such as a UPC or EAN barcode on your products.
- The ability to apply unique Transparency codes on every unit you manufacture.

Over 500 million product units were serialized by brands and manufacturers with unique Transparency codes. Transparency is a serialization service that protects each individual product unit. Brands apply a unique 2D code to their products, and Amazon scans the code to verify authenticity before any product is listed, sold or shipped to a customer. If a product fails this authenticity check, it is immediately set aside for further investigation.

Customers can also verify the authenticity of their product, no matter where they bought it, by scanning the Transparency code on the product's packaging using the Amazon shopping or Transparency app. Once scanned, customers can be confident their product is authentic, review detailed product information, videos, or promotions that can then be shared on social media. On the backend, Transparency also provides data-based insights into the service's effectiveness in proactively protecting customers and offers brands visibility into return volume and reasons.

Available in Amazon stores globally for registered Brands with a government-registered trademark.

Other Requirements

Identify that your goods were counterfeited and available in Amazon's store.

Amazon strictly prohibits infringing and counterfeit products in its store, and we have invested more than $700 million and employed more than 10,000 people to proactively protect its store from fraud, counterfeit, and abuse. We partner with brands to collect rich information about their intellectual property and products through Amazon Brand Registry, Project Zero, and Transparency, to detect, investigate, and remove counterfeit items from our stores and identify bad actors as targets for prosecution all over the world.

We work with brands to stop counterfeiters by referring cases to law enforcement, undertaking investigations, and pursuing litigation to seize counterfeit products and get justice for rights owners. Together, we identify and pursue counterfeiters at every link in their supply chain, affecting manufacturing, distribution, logistics, and financial resources, to reclaim illicit funds and deter counterfeiters from continuing their operations in our stores.

For Brands who want to drive awareness and discovery of their brand and product portfolio within Amazon shopping results.

Available in Amazon stores globally to registered Professional Seller, vendor, or author.

Build brand awareness, connect shoppers to your products, and control your costs with Sponsored Brands advertising. Ads feature your brand's logo, a custom headline, and up to three products to help generate recognition for your brand and product portfolio. They appear in multiple locations when shopping using a desktop and mobile app including above search results.

Help encourage repeat business by using your Sponsored Brands ad to send customers to your Store, providing opportunities for them to find additional products in your catalog that they may be interested in.

We provide a range of tools and reports that help you analyze campaign performance and measure success. New-to-brand metrics allow you to measure how many first-time customers your campaign drove in the last 12 months. Other reports provide campaign and placement performance, ad clicks, sales, and advertising cost of sales (ACOS) which represents your ad spend as a percentage of sales. Once you have launched your campaign, you can view performance through your dashboard or download reports from the reporting page. Use these reports to identify successful tactics and optimize your campaigns.

Manage Your Experiments

For Brands who want to optimize their listings by running experiments to learn what content appeals to their customers, and helps drive more sales.

Available in the following Amazon stores: United States, Canada, Mexico, Germany, France, Italy, Spain, United Kingdom, Turkey, Netherlands, Sweden, India, and Japan, to Brand Owners registered in Brand Registry.

Other Requirements

- At least one eligible ASIN based on traffic (see next section).

ASIN Eligibility:

- An ASIN is eligible if it belongs to your brand and has received enough traffic in recent weeks to be eligible for experimentation. We only let you experiment with high-traffic ASINs to increase the likelihood that you can confidently determine a winner at the end of the experiment. Depending on the category, high-traffic ASINs may get several dozen orders per week, or more.
- When selecting an ASIN to experiment on, Manage Your Experiments will show the eligibility status of most candidate ASINs, but note that ASINs with very low traffic may not appear at all. If an ASIN isn't eligible because it isn't high-traffic, consider driving more traffic to it using advertising or other means. A+ experiments must have published A+ content to be eligible. Only one experiment can be run on any particular ASIN at a time.

Knowing which content drives conversion and implementing changes to your listings based upon optimized content can increase sales up to 25%. Manage Your Experiments allows you to run randomized A/B tests on listing titles, product images, and A+ content to learn which content is more likely to convert into sales.

Version A - main image currently in use

Version B - main image for testing

Manage Your Experiments lets you run A/B tests (also known as split tests) on your brand's listing content. Experiments let you compare two versions of content against each other so you can see which performs better. At the end of an experiment, you can review which version performed the best and then publish the winning content. By running experiments, you can learn how to build better content that appeals to your customers and helps to drive more sales.
