

Solomons Solicitors Terms & Conditions

1 Our contract with you

- 1.1 These Terms of Business (as updated from time to time) apply to all work we do on your behalf. It is an important document—please read and keep it in a safe place for future reference.
- 1.2 Each time you instruct us on a new matter we will send you a letter confirming your instructions and setting out the scope of the work we will carry out for you, our fees and individual contact details. This is called the engagement letter. These Terms of Business should be read together with the engagement letter—together they form the contract between us.
- 1.3 If there is any inconsistency between our Terms of Business and the engagement letter, the engagement letter will take priority.
- 1.4 Your continuing instructions in this matter will amount to your acceptance of these Terms of Business.
- 1.5 Unless otherwise agreed, these Terms of Business will apply to all future instructions you give us on this or any other matter.
- 1.6 These Terms of Business are subject to change from time to time and are updated on our website at www.solomonslaw.co.uk/tob.
- 1.7 This contract and any dispute or claim arising out of, or in connection with, it, its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims) shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of England and Wales.

2 About us

- 2.1 Solomons Law LLP trading as Solomons Solicitors is a limited liability partnership incorporated in England and Wales with registered number OC434982. Its registered office is at Hamilton Court House, 1-3 Alum Chine Road, Bournemouth BH4 8DT. We use the term 'partner' to refer to a member of Solomons Law LLP or an employee or consultant with equivalent standing and qualifications. A list of the members, together with those non-members who are designated as partners, can be inspected at the registered office.
- 2.2 You can find details of the postal address, fax number, telephone number and email address of our office on our website at <https://www.solomonslaw.co.uk/privacy-policy>.
- 2.3 Solomons Law LLP is authorised and regulated by the Solicitors Regulation Authority (SRA), The Cube, 199 Wharfside Street, Birmingham, B1 1RN. This firm and our solicitors are governed by Codes of Conduct and other professional rules, which you can access on the SRA's website at www.sra.org.uk or by calling 0370 606 2555. Our SRA authorisation number is 816644. All services provided by Solomons Solicitors are regulated by the SRA.
- 2.4 We are registered for VAT purposes. Our VAT registration number is 375 1417 95.
- 2.5 Where we say 'we', 'us' or 'our' in these Terms of Business, we mean Solomons Solicitors.

3 About you

Where we say 'you' or 'your' in these Terms of Business, we mean the client identified in the engagement letter and anyone authorised to give instructions on that client's behalf.

4 Our responsibilities and your responsibilities

What you can expect of us	What we expect of you
Treat you fairly and with respect Communicate with you in plain language Review your matter regularly Advise you of any changes in the law that affect your matter Advise you of any reasonably foreseeable circumstances and risks that could affect the outcome of your matter	Provide documents when we ask for them and respond promptly when we ask for instructions or information Notify us if your contact details change Tell us immediately if your expectations change or if you are not sure you understand what we have discussed Inform us of any time limits or objectives that might not be obvious to us Notify us immediately if you receive any email or other communication purporting to be from the firm stating that we have changed our bank details or payment arrangements. Let us know about any other changes that may affect the way we deal with your matter

5 Scope of our legal services

- 5.1 The scope of the services we will provide is set out in the engagement letter.
- 5.2 We will provide legal advice and services to you with reasonable care and skill. However, the nature of many types of legal work means that it is not possible to guarantee a particular outcome.
- 5.3 Unless otherwise agreed in writing, we will advise only on English law.
- 5.4 We will not advise on surveying, valuation, commercial viability, trading or marketability issues. We only advise on tax when we have expressly agreed in writing to do so. Except as described at section 14 (Financial services), we do not provide financial services or advice.
- 5.5 If you ask us to obtain advice from another law firm, that firm will be responsible for the service and advice they provide.
- 5.6 Unless otherwise agreed in writing, our advice and any documents we prepare:
- 5.6.1 are for use only in connection with the specific matter on which we are instructed, can only be relied on by you; and
- 5.6.2 reflect the law in force at the relevant time.

6 Service standards

- 6.1 We are normally open between 9.30am to 5.30pm from Monday to Friday.

We may be able to arrange appointments outside of these hours, in cases of emergency. We are closed on all bank holidays.

- 6.2 We will update you by telephone or in writing (including by email) with progress on your matter regularly and explain to you the legal work required as your matter progresses.
- 6.3 We will update you at appropriate intervals on the likely timescale for each stage of your matter and any important changes in those estimates. Whenever there is a material change in circumstances associated with your matter, we will update you on whether the likely outcomes still justify the likely costs and risks.
- 6.4 We will update you on the cost of your matter at the intervals set out in the engagement letter. If appropriate, we will continue to review whether there are alternative methods by which your matter can be funded.
- 6.5 We are committed to acting in a way that encourages equality, diversity and inclusion in all our dealings with clients, third parties and employees. Please contact us if you would like a copy of our equality and diversity policy.

7 Our liability to you

- 7.1 Your contract is solely with Solomons Law LLP, which has sole legal liability for the work done for you and for any act or omission in the course of that work. No representative, member, officer, employee, agent or consultant of Solomons Law LLP, will have any personal legal liability for any loss or claim.
- 7.2 Unless explicitly agreed otherwise, in writing:
 - 7.2.1 we do not owe, nor do we accept, any duty to any person other than you; and
 - 7.2.2 we do not accept any liability or responsibility for any consequences arising from reliance upon our advice by any person other than you.
- 7.3 We are not responsible for any failure to advise or comment on matters falling outside the scope of our instructions, as set out in these Terms of Business and the engagement letter.
- 7.4 Our maximum liability to you (or any other party we have agreed may rely on our services) in relation to any single matter or any group of connected matters which may be aggregated by our insurers will be £3,000,000 including interest and costs unless we expressly state a different figure in the engagement letter.
- 7.5 We will not be liable for:
 - 7.5.1 losses that were not foreseeable to you and us when this contract was formed;
 - 7.5.2 losses not caused by any breach on the part of the firm; and
 - 7.5.3 business losses, including losses sustained by any individual not acting for purposes of their trade, business, craft or profession.
- 7.6 Nothing in these Terms of Business shall exclude or restrict our liability in respect of:
 - 7.6.1 death or personal injury caused by our negligence;

- 7.6.2 fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation;
 - 7.6.3 any losses caused by wilful misconduct or dishonesty
 - 7.6.4 any other losses which cannot be excluded or limited by applicable law;
 - 7.7 Please ask if you would like us to explain any of the terms above.
- 8 Our charges and billing
- 8.1 You are liable to pay legal costs as set out in the engagement letter, which also states the arrangements for billing. We will usually discuss this with you at the outset of your matter.
 - 8.2 We may deliver our bills to you electronically. Please let us know if you have any particular requirements for the delivery of our bills.
 - 8.3 Our bills become due for payment upon issue and in the currency in which they are submitted.
 - 8.4 Please inform us if you would like a third party to be responsible for paying our bills or any part of them. We must approve this in advance and we will need the party's name, contact details and any other information or identification documents we request. It is your responsibility to pay our bills even if someone else has agreed to pay some or all of them and our bills will still be addressed to you. If someone else does pay some of our bills, you are responsible for paying the rest.
 - 8.5 We may charge interest on overdue bills on a daily basis at a rate of 4% above the base rate of Lloyds Bank plc.
 - 8.6 We may cease acting for you if an interim bill remains unpaid after 30 days or if our reasonable request of a payment on account of costs is not met.
 - 8.7 You have the right to challenge or complain about our bill. Please see section 16 (Complaints) for details of how to complain about our bill.
 - 8.8 You have the right to challenge our bill by applying to the court to assess the bill under the Solicitors Act 1974. The usual time limit for applying to the court for an assessment is one month from the date of delivery of the bill.
- 9 Confidentiality
- 9.1 We will keep your information confidential, unless:
 - 9.1.1 you consent to the disclosure of that information;
 - 9.1.2 disclosure of the information is required or permitted by law; or
 - 9.1.3 these Terms of Business state otherwise.
 - 9.2 Unless you instruct us otherwise, email will be our default method of communication. We deploy a range of information security measures, but we cannot guarantee the security of information or documents sent by email. If you do not wish us to communicate information by email, please let us know.

- 9.3 Sometimes we ask other companies or people to carry out work on our files to help us deliver efficient, cost effective legal services. We ensure all outsourcing providers operate under service agreements that are consistent with our legal and professional obligations, including in relation to confidentiality. For information on outsourcing in relation to your personal data, please see our Privacy policy at <https://www.solomonslaw.co.uk/privacy-policy> or request a copy from us.
- 9.4 External organisations such as the Information Commissioner’s Office and the SRA may conduct audit or quality checks on our practice from time to time. They may wish to audit or quality check your file and related papers for this purpose. We will require that these external organisations maintain confidentiality in relation to any files and papers which are audited or quality checked.
- 9.5 Your files may also be reviewed in a due diligence exercise relating to the sale or transfer of all or part of our business, the acquisition of another business by us or the acquisition of new business. If you do not wish your file to be used in this way, please let us know as soon as possible.

10 Privacy and data protection

- 10.1 We use your personal data primarily to provide legal services to you, but also for related purposes such as administration, billing and record keeping and to inform you of our services and events that we think may be of interest to you.
- 10.2 Our use of your personal data is subject to your instructions, the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), other relevant UK and EU legislation and our professional duty of confidentiality.
- 10.3 We take your privacy very seriously. Our Privacy policy contains important information on how and why we collect, process and store your personal data. It also explains your rights in relation to your personal data. Please see our Privacy policy at <https://www.solomonslaw.co.uk/privacy-policy> or request a copy from us.
- 10.4 We may record telephone calls and monitor emails for training, regulatory and compliance purposes.
- 10.5 We use third party service providers (including ‘cloud’ service providers) to help us deliver efficient, cost effective legal services. This may include document/information hosting, sharing, transfer, analysis, processing or storage. We ensure all third party service providers operate under service agreements that are consistent with our legal and professional obligations, including in relation to confidentiality, privacy and data protection. If you instruct us to use an alternative provider for storing, sharing or exchanging documents/information, we are not responsible for the security of the data or the provider’s security standards.
- 10.6 We may use your personal data to send you updates (by email, text, telephone or post) about legal developments that might be of interest to you and/or information about our services, including exclusive offers, promotions or new services or products. You have the right to opt out of receiving promotional communications at any time, by:
- 10.6.1 contacting us by email: data@solomonslaw.co.uk;
- 10.6.2 using the ‘unsubscribe’ link in emails or ‘STOP’ number in texts.

11 Banking and related matters

11.1 Our client account

Unless agreed otherwise, we hold client money in various accounts with UK banks which are regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA).

11.2 Changes to our bank details

We will never tell you of changes to important business information, such as bank account details, by email. Please notify us immediately if you receive any email or other communication purporting to be from the firm stating that we have changed our bank details or payment arrangements.

11.3 Payment of interest

11.3.1 We will pay a fair sum of interest to clients or third parties on client money we hold on their behalf.

11.3.2 We will not pay interest:

- (a) on money we are instructed to hold outside a client account in a manner that does not attract interest, eg cash held in our safe;
- (b) where the amount of interest is less than £90.00;
- (c) where we agree otherwise, in writing, with the client or third party for whom the money is held 11.3.3 Please ask us if you would like to see our written payment of interest policy.

11.4 Bank failure and the Financial Services Compensation Scheme

11.4.1 We are not liable for any losses you suffer as a result of any bank in which we hold client money being unable to repay depositors in full. You may, however, be protected by the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS).

11.4.2 The FSCS is the UK's statutory fund of last resort for customers of banking institutions. The FSCS can pay compensation up to £85,000 if a banking institution is unable, or likely to be unable, to pay claims against it.

11.4.3 The limit is £85,000 per banking institution. If you hold other personal money in the same banking institution as our client account[s], the limit remains £85,000 in total. Some banking institutions have several brands. The compensation limit is £85,000 per institution, not per brand.

11.4.4 The FSCS also provides up to £1m of short-term protection for certain high balances, eg relating to property transactions, inheritance, divorce or dissolution of a civil partnership, unfair dismissal, redundancy, and personal injury compensation (there is no financial limit on protection for personal injury compensation). This is called the temporary high balance scheme and, if it applies, protection lasts for a maximum of six months.

11.4.5 The FSCS (including the temporary high balance scheme) will apply to qualifying balances held in our client account(s). In the unlikely event of a deposit-taking institution failure, we will presume (unless we hear from you in writing to the contrary) we have your consent to disclose necessary client details to the FSCS.

11.4.6 More information about the FSCS can be found at <https://www.fscs.org.uk>.

11.5 Receiving and paying funds

11.5.1 Our policy is not to accept cash of any amount. If you try to avoid this policy by depositing cash directly with our bank, we may decide to charge you for any additional checks we decide are necessary to prove the source of the funds and this could also cause delays.

11.5.2 If we receive money in relation to your matter from an unexpected source, there may be a delay in your matter and we may decide to charge you for any additional checks we decide are necessary.

11.5.3 Where we have to pay money to you, it will be paid by cheque or bank transfer. It will not be paid in cash or to a third party unless by specific legal authority with relevant ID checks being undertaken of the third party.

12 Prevention of money laundering and terrorist financing

12.1 To comply with anti-money laundering and counterterrorist financing requirements, we are likely to ask you for proof of your identity and may conduct searches or enquiries for this purpose. We may also be required to identify and verify the identity of other persons such as directors or beneficial owners. If you or they do not provide us with the required information promptly, your matter may be delayed.

12.2 You agree that we may make checks using online electronic verification systems or other databases as we may decide.

12.3 You must not send us any money until we have told you that these checks have been completed.

12.4 We will not usually charge you for undertaking identification and verification checks, but we reserve the right to do so where the checks are likely to be significantly more time-consuming than we would normally expect.

12.5 We may ask you to confirm the source of any money you have sent us or will send us. If you do not provide us with that information promptly, your matter may be delayed.

12.6 Any personal data we receive from you for the purpose of preventing money laundering or terrorist financing will be used only for that purpose or:

12.6.1 with your consent, or

12.6.2 as permitted by or under another enactment.

12.7 We are professionally and legally obliged to keep your affairs confidential. However, we may be required by law to make a disclosure to the National Crime Agency where we know or suspect that a transaction may involve money laundering or terrorist financing. If we make a disclosure in relation to your matter, we may not be able to tell you that a disclosure has been made. We may have to stop working on your matter for a period of time and may not be able to tell you why.

12.8 Subject to section 7 (Our liability to you), we shall not be liable for any loss arising from or connected with our compliance with any statutory obligation which we may have, or reasonable belief we may have, to report matters to the relevant authorities under the provisions of the money laundering and/or terrorist financing legislation.

13 Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act

13.1 Unless expressly indicated in the engagement letter, we will not advise in relation to US or UK reporting obligations as a result of the US Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA). We may, however, ask you to confirm your reporting status, for instance by requesting your Global Intermediary Identification Number (GIIN).

13.2 To comply with the law, we may have to share some of your information, including your FATCA status and, if applicable, your GIIN with financial institutions. It is vital that we keep your information current at all times. You are responsible for communicating to us any changes in circumstances that may alter your FATCA status.

14 Financial services

14.1 We are not authorised by the Financial Conduct Authority. However, we are included on the register maintained by the Financial Conduct Authority so that we can carry on insurance distribution activity, which is broadly the advising on, selling and administration of insurance contracts. This part of our business, including arrangements for complaints or redress if something goes wrong, is regulated by the Solicitors Regulation Authority. The register can be accessed via the Financial Conduct Authority website at www.fca.org.uk/firms/financial-services-register.

14.2 We are not authorised by the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA) in relation to consumer credit services. However, because we are regulated by the SRA, we may be able to provide certain limited consumer credit services where these are closely linked to the legal work we are doing for you. This is because we are members of the Law Society of England and Wales, which is a designated professional body for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000.

14.3 We are also not authorised by the FCA to provide investment advice services. If you need advice on investments, we may refer you to someone who is authorised by the FCA to provide the necessary advice. However, because we are regulated by the SRA, we may be able to provide certain limited investment advice services where these are closely linked to the legal work we are doing for you.

14.4 The SRA is the independent regulatory arm of the Law Society. The Legal Ombudsman deals with complaints against lawyers. If you are unhappy with any financial service you receive from us, you should raise your concerns with the SRA or Legal Ombudsman.

15 Professional indemnity insurance

15.1 We have professional indemnity insurance giving cover for claims against us. Details of this insurance, including contact details of our insurer and the territorial coverage of the policy can be provided on request.

15.2 It is a condition of our professional indemnity insurance that we notify our insurer and/or broker of any circumstances which may give rise to a claim against us. In doing so, we may disclose documents and information to our insurer, broker and insurance advisers on a confidential basis. Our insurers and brokers are contractually obliged to keep all information we pass to them strictly confidential.

16 Complaints

16.1 We want to give you the best possible service. However, if at any point you become unhappy or concerned about the service we have provided you should inform us immediately so we can do our best to resolve the problem.

16.2 In the first instance it may be helpful to contact the person who is working on your case to discuss your concerns and we will do our best to resolve any issues. If you would like to make a formal complaint, please contact our Practice Director on 01202 802807 or email: practice@solomonslaw.co.uk or write directly to the Practice Director at the office. Making a complaint will not affect how we handle your matter.

16.3 What to do if we cannot resolve your complaint

16.3.1 We have eight weeks to consider your complaint. If we have not resolved it within this time you may be able to complain to the Legal Ombudsman. This applies if you are an individual, a business with fewer than 10 employees and turnover or assets not exceeding a certain threshold, a charity or trust with a net income of less than £1m, or if you fall within certain other categories (you can find out more from the Legal Ombudsman). The Legal Ombudsman will look at your complaint independently and it will not affect how we handle your matter.

16.3.2 Before accepting a complaint for investigation, the Legal Ombudsman will check that you have tried to resolve your complaint with us first. If you have, then you must take your complaint to the Legal Ombudsman:

- (a) within six months of receiving a final response to your complaint;
- and
- (b) one year from the date of the act or omission being complained about; or
- (c) one year from the date when the complainant should have realised that there was cause for complaint.

16.3.3 If you would like more information about the Legal Ombudsman, please contact them.

16.4 What to do if you are unhappy with our behaviour

16.4.1 The Solicitors Regulation Authority can help if you are concerned about our behaviour. This could be for things like dishonesty, taking or losing your money or treating you unfairly because of your age, a disability or other characteristic.

16.4.2 Visit their website to see how you can raise your concerns with the Solicitors Regulation Authority.

17 Terminating your instructions

- 17.1 You may terminate our appointment at any time by giving us notice in writing. We can keep all your papers and documents while there is still money owed to us for our charges or disbursements.
- 17.2 We will only decide to stop acting for you with good reason, eg where we feel that the relationship has broken down, if you do not pay a bill, if you provide us with misleading information, or if you act in an abusive or offensive manner. We will give you reasonable notice before we stop acting for you.
- 17.3 If you or we decide that we should stop acting for you, we will charge you for the work we have done and, where appropriate, for transferring the matter to another adviser if you so request. This will be calculated on the basis set out in the engagement letter.
- 17.4 We are not responsible for reminding you about important dates and/or any deadlines after our appointment has been terminated.

18 Storage and retrieval of files

- 18.1 We may create and hold client files in hard copy (paper), electronically or a combination of both.
- 18.2 We normally store client files (except any of your papers you ask to be returned to you) for six years after we send you our final bill. Unless you instruct us to the contrary, we will store your file electronically only and will destroy our paper file. We store the file on the understanding that we may destroy it after six years. We will not destroy original documents such as wills, deeds and other securities which we have agreed to hold in safe custody but we may, on reasonable notice, send them to you for safekeeping.
- 18.3 We will not charge for this storage in safe custody, eg wills and title deeds. If we prepare a deed or a will for you we will store it free of charge.
- 18.4 If we retrieve your file from storage (including electronic storage) in relation to continuing or new instructions to act for you, we will not normally charge for the retrieval.
- 18.5 If we retrieve your file from storage for another reason, we may charge you for:
- 18.5.1 time spent retrieving the file and producing it to you;
 - 18.5.2 reading, correspondence, or other work necessary to comply with your instructions in relation to the retrieved file; and/or
 - 18.5.3 providing additional copies of any documents.
- 18.6 We will provide you with an electronic copy of the file unless it is inappropriate to do so.

19. Copyright

We own the copyright in any work we create and this copyright will not be transferred to you although you have our licence to use our work for the purposes for which it was created. We have the right to be identified as the author of the work and to object to any misuse of it.

You agree that we may store any counsel's opinion or other document created in the course of our work for you in our computer systems. We will endeavour to ensure that the system is secure and confidentiality is maintained.

20. Dispute Resolution

Where the work we do involves the resolution of a dispute:

20.1 Legal Costs and Expenses

You are responsible for our charges and any expenses whether you win or lose the dispute. Even if you are successful you may not be able to recover any of them from the other party, which will almost certainly be the case if the other party receives public funding. You may also be ordered to pay the legal costs and expenses of others if, for example, you lose your case, stop defending it or discontinue a case you started. If during a case the Court orders you to pay another party's legal costs and expenses they will normally be payable within 14 days. If you fail to pay you risk losing your case.

20.2 Third Party Payment of Legal Costs

If another person has agreed to pay all or part of our charges or expenses you will still remain liable for those costs. You accept we may keep that third party informed about the progress of any dispute and the costs and expenses which are incurred. Third party funding may be provided by your employer, professional body, Trade Union or under a legal expenses policy. Legal expenses policies are often added to Household or Motor Insurance policies. If we have not been notified about third party funding we will proceed on the basis that no such funding is available to you.

20. Third Party Access to Court Documents

Under court rules, third parties can ask the court for copies of any statement of case that we send to court on your behalf. Statements of case are the documents in which we set out your claim or defence. We will assume, unless you tell us otherwise, that you agree to this. If you are concerned about information in statements of case becoming public knowledge, then it is important that you let us know, as in some cases the court will agree to restrict access to these documents.

20.4 Public Funding ("Legal Aid")

We do not undertake work which is funded by the Legal Services Commission (formerly "Legal Aid). If you believe that you may be eligible for public funding and you have not already discussed this with us then you must notify us immediately. Otherwise we will proceed on the basis that you have chosen not to apply for public funding with a solicitors' firm who can provide legal aid even if you might be eligible.

20. 5 Decisions and Instructions

You authorise us to make routine or administrative decisions on your case without asking you first, although we will keep you informed. Dispute resolution, in particular litigation, is subject to detailed rules and deadlines. We are not responsible if you fail to give us instructions in time to comply with those rules and deadlines.

21. Client Appointments

Whilst we aim to provide a personal service to all our clients, in order to provide the highest level of service, we request that you arrange client meetings in advance. Ordinarily, we will aim to arrange a mutually convenient appointment within 1 working day.

Edition 10 (Operative from December 2023)
