Tech Agility Audit

Managed Services

Usually a short-term consulting engagement driven by an adverse event impacting your business, from unexpected framework and policy failures to missing team or broken tooling and requires immediate remediation

The initial phase of the audit work. It can be a standalone timebound activity designed to review your existing setup or estate in order to identify gaps, determine initial priority and uncover opportunities.

Inclusive of Discovery phase, this is the complete review of your estate, in which we jointly agree which areas are to be reviewed, impacted and recommendations made. We assist by delivering against ongoing review/delivery milestones or by sourcing talent with hard to find skillsets.
