

CAOC EVENT POLICIES

Code of Conduct

CAOC is committed to providing a safe, welcoming, and harassment-free experience for all participants at every event. This includes the following: CLE seminars and conventions, receptions, committee meetings and gatherings associated with CAOC. Participants include all attendees, sponsors, business representatives, speakers, and volunteers. All participants are welcome, regardless of race, color, sexual orientation, gender identity, ethnic origin, religious beliefs, disability, physical appearance, body size or dietary practice. All participants are expected to treat each other with respect, not disparage the competition, and to dress professionally at all times.

CAOC will not tolerate harassment in any form; this includes aggressive selling at events, and sexual language and/or imagery not appropriate for any part of the event.

Harassment includes, but is not limited to:

- Verbal comments intended to humiliate or belittle
- Sexual images in public spaces
- Deliberate intimidation
- Stalking
- Following
- Harassing photography or recording
- Sustained disruption of talks or other events
- Inappropriate physical contact
- Unwelcome attention

Consumer Attorneys of California reserves the right to, in its sole discretion, refuse entrance to the event or remove any individual from the event whose behavior is disruptive or is not consistent with the character and purpose of the event. All Consumer Attorneys of California badges are the property of CAOC and must be returned upon request.

No Suitcasing, Unauthorized Solicitation, and/or Aggressive Sales Pitches

Any supplier attendee who is observed to be soliciting business in the aisles or other public areas, in another company's booth, or in violation of any portion of the exhibition policy, will be asked to leave immediately.

Suitcasing is defined as any activity designed to solicit or sell products or services to delegates attending a meeting, conference or event without the proper authorization by CAOC or in ways that violate the rules of the event.

Promoting Safe and Smart Drinking Practices

At CAOC events, including receptions, where both alcoholic and non-alcoholic beverages are served, participants and staff who choose to drink alcoholic beverages are expected to drink responsibly. CAOC and convention, hotel or venue event staff have the right to deny service to attendees for any reason and may require an attendee to leave the event.

Participants asked to stop any harassing behavior are expected to comply immediately. If a participant engages in harassing behavior, the event organizers may take any action they deem appropriate, including warning the offender or expulsion from the event and association. Anyone being harassed, or noticing that someone else is being harassed, or having any other concerns, should please contact a member of event or hotel staff immediately.

Personal Responsibility & Liability Waiver

CAOC's goal is to ensure a safe meeting environment. By attending any CAOC in-person event (the "Event"), you voluntarily assume all risks and accept sole responsibility for any injury related to exposure to COVID-19, and release CAOC from liability for any injury or harm that may result by attending the Event. CAOC's goal is to ensure a safe meeting environment. If required, CAOC will also follow the strictest guidance (such as masking) established by the facility hosting the event, the county department of public health in which the event is located, and/or the State. As such, you also agree to abide by any prevention or safety measures that CAOC, the hotel or facility hosting the event, the county health department in which the event is located, or the State may have in place during the Event. You also agree not to attend the Event if you become ill or exhibit any symptoms of the COVID-19 virus immediately prior to or during the Event.

Confidentiality, Sensitive Information and Recording Policy

All attendees of CAOC events understand that they may have access to confidential, privileged, or proprietary information, including information concerning CAOC's Organizational, Legislative or Political Advocacy. By attending, you agree not to disclose or disseminate such information without the written permission of CAOC, except to persons you know to be plaintiff attorney members of CAOC or plaintiff members of a CAOC-affiliated trial lawyer organization. Additionally, you agree that you will not record, by audio, visual, or other means, any portion of any meeting or event without CAOC's permission.

Additional Compliance and Membership Obligations Policy

You further understand that if you knowingly and purposely violate these policies, CAOC will review your membership status and may revoke it; and you may be subjected to disciplinary charges, including, but not limited to, charges brought before state bar licensing boards. Upon request, you will provide state bar identification number(s); and, if a Law Student Member, identify the name of your law school or, if a Legal Staff Member, identify the name of your CAOC attorney sponsor.

Furthermore, if you register for a CAOC event, you certify that if you register as a CAOC Regular, Sustaining, or Out of State member, you are licensed to practice law and are actively engaged in the practice of law and that, for the most part, based on caseload and time, represent the plaintiff in civil litigation or represent the defendant in criminal litigation.
