

BIO

It's all about bullets and knives... Elements taken from a tortured dream of frontman Julien Delay. Founded in 2019 in Gembloux, Belgium, the band draws its energy from 90's rock and picks up the torch where the decade left off... The debut album « The Art of Dying », an ode to man's self-destruction is the perfect example of 12 alternative tracks; sometimes melodic, sometimes dynamic but always melancholic.

The music by Bullets and Knives looks forward, yet emphasizes a dark, nostalgic cityscape.
