
New IBO Voicemail & Text Scripts

Voicemail Script:

Good afternoon/evening, this is _____. I have recently been doing some business projects with _____. I told him/her a little bit about you. I'm looking forward to having the opportunity to connect with you. I will leave you a text as well so that we can coordinate a time to get on the phone. Have a great day/evening. I will talk with you soon.

Text Script (if left a voicemail)

Hey, _____. This is _____. I have recently been working with _____ on some business projects. I told him/her of you. I am looking forward to sharing some background with you to see if it is something we could work together on. When is a good time to reach you on the phone?

Text Script (if ask for details)

I am working with a team which coaches and trains people how to diversify and create sustainable income outside of their full-time careers. When is a good time to connect with you for a couple minutes on the phone so we can discuss?
