Moses talks to Pharaoh.

Exodus 5—12:32

After God talked to Moses, Moses obeyed God.

Moses and his brother, Aaron, went to talk to Pharaoh. "God said to let His people go!" they said. But Pharaoh did not listen. Pharaoh did not care what God said. Instead, Pharaoh made the Israelite slaves work even harder!

Moses and Aaron went to see Pharaoh again.

They told Pharaoh, "God is going to send terrible troubles on Egypt if you don't let the Israelites go, so they can worship Him." But Pharaoh didn't care. He said no again!

God made terrible things happen in Egypt because Pharaoh would not let the Israelites leave. Frogs came out of the river and got into everything. There were bugs everywhere. All the animals in the fields died. People got terrible sores and all the plants were destroyed. But Pharaoh still refused to let the Israelites go!

Finally, even Pharaoh's own son died. Then

Pharaoh believed what God had said to Moses. Pharaoh told Moses and the Israelites to quickly leave his country.
