What we do

When you need to break the ice with new recruits or bring your entire workforce together on an annual corporate fun day, we'll provide stimulating, engaging, fun-filled activities for everyone involved.

Let's help your team discover new talents and unleash their potential to become Crazy Golf legends, Carnival heroes and BIG game winners.

We'll plan your itinerary, create the activities, organise your group into teams, manage the scores and compare the award ceremony. We'll even look after the kids if needed!

You can book our services for an existing event or ask us to organise the entire project, from venue hire to activities and catering.

About Matthew Bray Entertainment

Matthew Bray Entertainment is a passionately independent corporate event and team-building activity provider.

The business was founded by Matt Bray, a trained actor and performer since the age of five. Matt is our head entertainer and is as enthusiastic about entertainment today as he has always been.

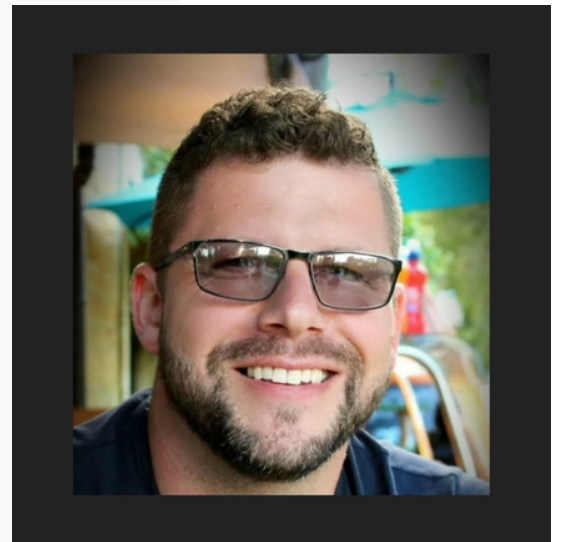

Everything we do is designed to create a stimulating experience that brings out the team spirit in every person.

More than just activities

Organising a team-building event may seem daunting, but we are here to take the weight off your mind.

Once you book us to manage your event, we'll arrange everything from the venue hire to the catering and itinerary, organise teams, record the scores, and serve as the host for the award ceremony.

This way, you get a professionally run, stress-free experience full of camaraderie, fun and laughter.

Typical Itinerary

Every event is tailored to your needs, but here is an example of a typical 4-hour itinerary:

#	Activity	Notes
1	Arrival	We recommend refreshments on arrival to give guests an opportunity to mingle for up to 60 minutes.
2	Teams	As the arrival period gets into full swing, we'll split everyone into teams. Often, clients like to pre-arrange the teams into departments or specific groups. We'll distribute the scorecards, explain the rules and help everyone get underway.
3	Carnival Games & Crazy Golf	We recommend the Crazy Golf and Carnival Games in the first session before the hospitality break.
4	Food & Drink	Sit-down hospitality works really well as guests recount their first session experiences while looking forward to the all-action Party Games.
5	Party Games	The Party Games include BIG Pass The Parcel with 10 parcels in play at once, passing games, Grown-up Musical Chairs, themed Bingo and quizzes. Our seasoned entertainers lead all the games.
6	Awards Ceremony	We typically finish with an awards ceremony to crown the winners and distribute the prizes. Depending on your requirements, we may also give out funny prizes for things like 'most photocopier or printer jams' or 'most spilt cups of coffee'. This is a perfect time to reward team members who've developed a reputation for something.
