

Coach Walker's Legacy

Verse 1

He walked the sidelines, a guiding light,
Teaching the game, showing what's right.
With every whistle, with every cheer,
Coach Walker's lessons still echo here.
A father, a friend, a mentor to all,
He lifted us up, he answered the call.

Chorus

Oh, Jim, you showed us the way,
Through the highs and the lows, come what may.
With a heart so kind, and a life well-spent,
Your love and your strength were heaven-sent.
Oh, Jim, your journey lives on— In the lives of the hearts you've drawn.

Verse 2

On the open road, beneath endless skies,
With Clair by your side, joy in your eyes.
From mountain cabins to ocean shores,
You filled every moment with so much more.
Through the miles you travelled, the bonds you made,
The love of your life, the memories stayed.

Chorus

Oh, Jim, you showed us the way,
Through the highs and the lows, come what may.
With a heart so kind, and a life well-spent,
Your love and your strength were heaven-sent.
Oh, Jim, your journey lives on— In the lives of the hearts you've drawn.
