

The Hands That Built, the Heart That Gave

Intro

In the silence, I feel Your call. A gentle voice breaking through it all.

Verse 1

He walked with courage, he lived with grace,
A steady hand in every place.
From the fields of service to the homes he made,
Bob's love shone bright, it will never fade.
With every laugh, with every prayer,
He showed us the power of love and care.

Chorus

Oh, Bob, you're in the Father's arms,
Resting now, free from life's harms.
Your spirit's here, it lifts us high,
Guiding us still from the heavenly sky.
Oh, Bob, your legacy's strong,
We'll keep on singing your faithful song.

Verse 2

He built with his hands, but he gave with his heart,
Creating a life that set him apart.
Through every storm, he stood so tall,
With a joyful soul that inspired us all.
From family moments to faith-filled days,
He walked this earth in righteous ways.

Chorus

Oh, Bob, you're in the Father's arms,
Resting now, free from life's harms.
Your spirit's here, it lifts us high,
Guiding us still from the heavenly sky.
Oh, Bob, your legacy's strong,
We'll keep on singing your faithful song.

Bridge

Hallelujah, the gates are wide, Heaven's glory now by your side.
You ran your race, you fought the fight, And now you shine in eternal light.

Chorus

Oh, Bob, you're in the Father's arms,
Resting now, free from life's harms.
Your spirit's here, it lifts us high,
Guiding us still from the heavenly sky.
Oh, Bob, your legacy's strong,
We'll keep on singing your faithful song.

Outro

Oh, Bob, we'll meet you someday, In heaven's light, where angels play.
Until that time, your love will stay, Forever guiding us on our way.
