

FOOD FOR THE HEART & SOUL

NOAHIDE COUNCIL OR THE BEGINNING OF THE ONE WORLD RELIGION?

NOAHIDE
INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS
JERUSALEM 2026

Greetings to all our family, subscribers, and followers in the Messiah Yeshua this month. As many know the biblical Holidays have now finished for the season. But the next holiday which is not part of the seven biblical feasts is the coming Hebraic Holiday “Hanukkah” or called in the B’rit ha dasha “The feast of Dedication” and we’ll certainly dive into the meaning and understanding of that holiday and what it means today. Also want to express grateful thanks to our subscribers and followers this month, as you have made a real difference by being here with us. We love and appreciate it all.

DEALING WITH THE NOAHIDE COUNCIL

Now as it stands today, there’s been quite a lot of hype and mixed emotions and commotion over something called the Noahide Council. It’s all over the news, YouTube, and magazines. And there’s been a huge frenzy, fear, and confusion along with speculation after speculation about it. Some even feel and believe that this is the beginning of the one world false religion started by the false prophet and Antichrist?

Click & Get our New Book on Amazon -type "Hebraic Concepts Rabbi Pastor La Rue"

But we ask, is the Noahide Council really a false religion? or perhaps an outreach movement to Judaize the world to follow rabbinic Judaism? According to this Noahide council a number of its beliefs are connected to some biblical commandments such as the belief in one God. Judaism as everyone may know rejects the claims that Yeshua is Messiah and Son of God, as well as admits that the Noahide Laws do not again recognize Jesus (Yeshua) as God, or a divine savior.

We honor and believe that God is “Ehad” one God. But we believe God has manifested himself through his Son and the ruach ha Kodesh or Holy Spirit who has always been the witness and agent of God throughout all human and Israelite history, as the same can be said about Yeshua who has been with the father since the beginning of all creation and nothing that was created or was made, was made without him [Yohanan. John 1:1-3]. They are one in unity, will, and purpose. They are not divided or against each other, they are ONE UNITY, they are one. As that is also the correct Hebrew perspective and meaning describing the true oneness of God.

That also being based on the Hebrew or Tanach scriptures of the Old Testament [Deut.6:4] What rabbinic Judaism and the Noahides fail to accept and believe is that God is a Tri-unity or as some call Trinty. We can defend that by using the Hebrew scriptures which is something we can enlighten fellow Jews in this movement. Not make them our enemy and call them evil, demonic or demons, because that is also antisemitism. And if people treat this issue or it’s people as demonic as some are, they are violating the very command of our own Messiah which said “Love your enemy” and do good to your enemy and “Pray for your enemies” which a lot of people online blindly seem to fail or follow this simple command [Mattiyahu. Matt. 5:43-44] We should decern things and not take them out of context or infame them into a witch hunt.

WE ARE YESHUA’S WITNESSES

Remember, we are light and we are to be Yeshua’s witness in this world especially to the lost sheep of the House of Israel as told to us in [Matt.5:14-16 & Rom.1:6] Our mission isn’t to point fingers or condemn the lost it is to be a witness of the gospel to them. Let’s keep that one front and center.

ARE THE NOAHIDE COUNCIL'S BELIEFS REALLY DEMONIC?

As we look at what the belief system is here, we find the following;

Click on Noahide image to see

Prohibition of Idolatry (Avodah Zarah): Do not worship false gods or idols; acknowledge a single, supreme Creator.-we agree there is one God, but he is a trinity. And we disagree with Judaism's belief here on the Oneness of God. This command is not demonic and does not come from the Talmud as we all can see [Ex.20:3-5]

- Click on the Scriptures to compare the Noahide beliefs-

Prohibition of Blasphemy (Birkat Hashem): Do not curse, insult, or blaspheme God. We believe this and continue to follow this command under the New Covenant. This is not demonic or from the Talmud, it is an ongoing
- commandment.
[Ex.20:7]

Prohibition of Murder (Shefichat Damim): Do not murder or unlawfully take human life. We believe and follow this
- commandment under the New Covenant as a ongoing commandment. It is not demonic. And it is also a national law already in the USA. [Ex.20:13]

Prohibition of Sexual Immorality (Giluy Arayot): Do not engage in forbidden sexual relations, including incest, adultery,
- and bestiality. We believe and follow this commandment as an ongoing commandment under the New Covenant. It is not demonic or from the Talmud and we are to continue obeying Gods command. [1 Cor.6:18]
-

Prohibition of Theft (Gezel): Do not steal or rob from others.

- We believe and follow this command under the New Covenant as an ongoing command of God. Again, this is not demonic. Nor does it come from the Talmud. [Ex.20:15]

Prohibition of Eating a Limb from a Living Animal (Eiver Min HaChai): Do not eat flesh or a limb torn off a living animal (prohibiting animal cruelty). We are not obligated to keep any form of the kosher mosaic laws under the New Covenant. But as far as animal cruelty goes it is against our national law and is forbidden in the USA. And eating blood or foods sacrificed to idols is forbidden in the New Covenant [Acts 15] But no follower of the Messiah should ever be forced to eat kosher that too is a violation of New Covenant freedom. And here we have a disagreement with rabbinic Judaism as far keeping kosher. But their point of view is not demonic as they are still observing a obsolete mosaic covenant when speaking in reference to keeping any kind of kosher here if that will be implied with this prohibition. But this is not demonic but is blindness towards understanding and accepting the New Covenant. And, as for eating animals Lim's
- while alive is an interpretation that may stem from Talmud teaching. The teaching of the Talmud on this is not scripture and is not an authority to anyone. But I will add, I don't believe anyone of us would ever want to harm an animal just to eat it while it's still living. That's over the top and cruel for anyone to do. And I would not do that based on that knowledge, not because they are insisting it should be done.

Requirement to Establish Courts of Justice (Dinim): Set up a legal system and courts of law to enforce the first six laws and maintain a just society. We believe in judicial systems which is our current laws in the USA. We follow these laws because they are morally just in persevering with peace, safety and order in the land. But where we are not in agreement with rabbinic Judaism is in using Gods commands to impose or have some sort of control over the general public or become some sort of law over the world or supposed nations. While we follow most of the mentioned commandments already, we are followers of the Messiah living under a New Covenant not following rabbinic Judaism itself or making converts, we follow Gods commands alone not Judaism. They are right in how we should continue honoring and keeping Gods commands, but they wrong by trying to super impose this movement using commandments for a type of gain and control of possible converts apart from accepting the Messiah. Even though they may claim there is no motive to coerce or missionize anyone it is a doorway that can lead others to convert to it by movements like this. They are also not a government authority or are they our authority to rule or govern over us by using his movement in this way. Not to mention in the USA we already have a constitution to practice the freedom of religion and no matter what, their attempts to make this some kind of authority will be a direct violation of our religious beliefs.

OBSERVATIONS & BOTTOM-LINE

While this movement promotes basic guidance to following Gods basic Torah commandments. The movement is no threat to our religious freedom in America. And even if our president were and may sign their allegiance, it does not stop nor change our right to our religious freedom. The president would have to alter and change our constitution to fit rabbinic Judaism's laws.

And I believe this would create a national uproar as there are many with different beliefs in America and it would be those who would protest and fight that from happening. By observing the basics of the commands, we find they themselves are not unbiblical or demonic. We have a few disagreements, but it's no threat to our faith or belief or way of life, it's not the antichrist system or religion as some have blindly said. It is also observed that this is not a one world religion or that is filled or is polluted with 100% demonic influences as some may have believed the hype and online traffic that is spreading about this. There is also some more investigating that needs to be done here, and we'll surely update everyone as to what we find out further about his. One issue is dealing with the Brit Olam or covenant of Peace. And that's an interesting subject we'll get into. As well as look into the purpose of the Talmud being used and interpreted in this movement.

OUR ENCOURAGEMENT

If you know of someone who may be struggling to understand this issue of the Noahide council today, we encourage you to download the letter and pass it along. And remember to decern all things and be careful before labeling people or movements as "demonic," examine their beliefs carefully through Scripture, reject what conflicts with Messiah, affirm what is biblically true, and respond with love, prayer, and faithful witness rather than bad judgement, fear and hostility.

Wishing everyone love, and blessings in serving our Messiah
Rabbi P.L