

INTRODUCTION TO GEOGRAPHY (WHAT TO TEACH)

1. Meaning of Geography

- Geography study of the Earth, people, and environment etc.

2. Meaning of Environment

- Environment like everything around us etc.
- Both natural like rivers and artificial like roads etc.

3. Types of Environment

- Natural environment like forests, rivers, hills, lakes, animals etc.
- Man-made environment like houses, schools, roads, farms, factories etc.

4. Relationship Between People and Environment

- People depend on the environment for food, water, shelter.
- People change the environment through farming, building, mining.
- The environment can help or harm people like fertile land, floods, drought etc.

5. Importance of Studying Geography

- Lays a foundation for future careers.
- Clearing misinformation on landforms formation.
- Appreciate the lifestyles of other people etc.

6. Importance of the Environment to People

- Clean water promotes good health.
- Trees provide rain, shade, clean air.
- Fertile soil support food growth etc.
- Clear lake water supports more fish supply etc.

7. Environmental Degradation Practices

- Burning fossil.
- Deforestation.
- Poor waste disposal.
- Bush burning etc.

8. Environmental Preservation

- Planting trees.
- Proper waste disposal.
- Protecting water sources.
- Avoiding bush burning.
- Using green energy etc.