About Faith Raine

Faith Raine is an inspiring author who writes with warmth, honesty, and quiet wisdom. She began writing as a way to process life's seasons of change and discovered her calling to encourage others through their own journeys. Now she writes for the joy of offering companionship to souls navigating transitions, heartbreak, and healing.

Drawing inspiration from Scripture, personal reflection, and the raw beauty of faith in uncertain seasons, Raine crafts letters that feel like intimate conversations with a trusted friend. Her goal is to create words that not only comfort but inspire readers to trust God's timing and embrace the beauty of becoming. With Quirky Letters, she reminds readers that faith doesn't always look graceful—sometimes it's messy, tear-streaked, and uncertain, but even in those moments, God is writing something beautiful.

Behind the Book

Quirky Letters: Faith, Healing, and Honest Words for the Journey is a tender collection of reflections, poems, and letters that speak to anyone learning to trust God through seasons of change, where faith meets fear and healing meets hope.
